

Masculine and feminine

In French, there is a difference between masculine and feminine words (adjectives, nouns, determiners...)

(In German, there is a difference between masculine, feminine and neutral)

1. Indefinite articles / determiners : (a cat / an elephant)

- Un (masculin)

Un ami = un copain (a friend)

Un frère (a brother)

Un père (a father)

un oncle (an uncle)

Un garçon (a boy)

- Une (feminin)

une amie = une copine (a friend - feminine)

une soeur (a sister)

une mère (a mother)

une tante (an aunt)

une fille (a girl)

2. Definite article / determiner - how to translate 'the'

- Option 1 : LA (when the noun refers to a feminine object or person)

La soeur (the sister)

La tante (the aunt)

La fille (the girl)

La mère (the mother)

- Option 2 : LE (when the noun refers to a masculine object or person)

Le père (the father)

Le frère (the brother)

Le garçon (the boy)

- Option 3 : L' (when the following word starts with a vowel)

L'oncle (the uncle)

L'ami (the friend - masculine) - L'amie (the friend - feminine)

3. Possessive determiners

- Mon (my - masculine noun following it) Ex : mon père (my father)
- Ma (my - feminine noun following it) Ex : ma mère (my mother)
- Mes (my - plural noun following it) Ex : mes parents (my parents)

- Ton (your - masculine noun following it + informal). Ex : ton oncle (your uncle) when you talk to someone in your family or to a friend
- Ta (your - feminine noun following it + informal) Ex : Ta tante (your aunt) when you talk to someone in your family or to a friend
- Tes (your -plural noun following it+ informal). Ex : Tes parents (your parents) when you talk to someone in your family or to a friend

- Son (his or her -masculine noun following it). Ex : Son père (even when talk about a girl's father, 'father' is always going to be masculine)
- Sa (his or her -masculine noun following it) Ex: Sa mère
- Ses (his or her -plural noun following it). Ex : Ses parents

- Notre (our, when followed by a singular, feminine or masculine). Ex : Notre ami (our friend)
- Nos (our, when followed by a plural noun). Ex : Nos amis (Our friends)

- Votre (your, when followed by a singular, feminine or masculine noun+ formal) : Votre oncle (your uncle)
- Vos (your, when followed by a plural, feminine or masculine noun + formal) : Vos tantes (your aunts)

- Leur (their, when followed by singular,feminine or masculine noun) : Leur tante (their aunt)
- Leurs (their, when followed by a plural, feminine or masculine noun) : Leurs oncles (their uncles)

4. Adjectives

- Nationalities
 - Masculine : français, anglais, américain, canadien, mexicain, chinois, portoricain
 - Feminine : française, anglaise, américaine, canadienne, mexicaine, chinoise, portoricaine

